Not since the series of the Biograph Jones comedies has there been such a really funny collection of motion picture art as was enjoyed by an amused audience last evening at the Comique.

The two Biograph subjects presented last night were declared by the majority of people present to be the best and most humorous entertainment seen in a long time. The audience is convulsed with laughter through the two pictures. Surely it is one of the best shows for ages.

Among the arrivals at the City hotel last evening and today were W. P. Dillingham, Waterbury; H. A. Broad, Boston; E. B. Sherman and wife, Tunbridge; M. B. Mauk, Detroit, Mich.; C. M. The juvenile concert at the Masonic fair last evening was enjoyed by a hall full of people and gave the youngsters who took part in the program enthusiastic applause. A mandolin selection was nicely played by the Misses Todd; Master Newell Parker pleased everyone with his beautiful voice, when he sang, "I'm a Pilgrim"; Master George Troupe, a pupil of Edwin Bruce, played a violin solo with remarkable ability; Miss Lorraine Lerange sang a song very enjoyable and the program closed with another mandolin duet by the Misses Todd. The program this evening will include the following: selection by banjo club of Montpelier, solo by Miss Emma Phillips, violin solo by Miss Bartlett, reading by H. W. Heath and a light-of-hand performance by Fred Pirie.

The Daylight Store

Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments

These Garments have worked a change in the health and comfort of smaller children especially those that are restless and will not keep covered these cool nights. You yourself would rest better if the children wore Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments.

DR. DENTON'S SLEEPING GARMENT

Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments

Come in two styles at two prices; are made of a very closely woven, part wool material in light grey and will shrink but little.

These garments button closely at the neck and have feet. Smaller sizes 50c, larger sizes priced in proportion to size.

We have sold these Sleeping Garments for years; sold them when they could not be had from anyone else in this part of the state, and now we do a big business with them.

In this same department we are showing a Ladies' Night Robe made to sell at $1.25. It's the best quality on the market and our price is now only $1.00 each.

Beacon Blankets

These Blankets come in all sizes and in beautiful colors, and it is well to know that these colors will wash and are fast.

Baby Blankets in small sizes, as shown in our window, for babies' cribs, carriage or sleigh covers, in all colors, at only 50c each. Large sizes for small beds in same grade and larger size at 75c each.

Fancy Blankets for kimonos or bath robes, in colors that will wash, at $1.95, $2.50 and $3.95. One makes a garment. See them in our window.

Cords in all colors that come in sets, one for the waist and one for the neck, at 50c per set, to match above blankets, and we ourselves are wearing it.

Munsing Underwear

By patronizing the express nearly every day, we are keeping our stock of Munsing Underwear in pretty good shape.

Lots think that this Underwear comes only in Union Suits. Want to say that they are just as good on single Vests and Pants as on their Union Suits. This means that they have the very best Vests and Pants for 50c made in America to-day.

We would not pay freight and nearly every day express on large packages from Minneapolis, Minn., if we could get as good in Boston or New York. We know what it is for our best customers, and we ourselves are wearing it.

The reason that we think Regal Shoe would please you is that nearly every customer made last Spring are here for a pair of Fall style Regal Shoes. We can use you just as well on Ladies' Rubbers.

Advice to a Discontented Young Lady.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell's new historical serial begins in the November American Magazine. It is devoted to the history of "The American Woman." Miss Tarbell quotes the following letter written by Mrs. Marcy Otis Warren to one of those discontented young ladies of Revolutionary days:

"The deficiency lies not so much in the inferior Contemner of Female Intellects as in the Sexes, for when the Cultivation of the Mind is neglected in either, we see Ignorance, Stupidity, and Folly of Manners equally conspicuous in both."

"It is my opinion that that part of the human species who think nature (as well as the infinitely wise and supreme author thereof) has given them their superiority over the other, mistake their own happiness when they neglect to culture of of reason in their daughters while they take all possible methods of improving it in their sons."

"The pride you feel on bearing reflections indiscriminately cast on the sex is laudable if any is so--I take it, it is a kind of conscious dignity that ought rather to be cherished, for while we own the appointed subordination (perhaps for the sake of order in families) an inferiority as would check the ardour of our endeavours to equal in all accomplishments the most masculine heights, that when these temporary distinctions subside we may be equally qualified to taste the full draughts of knowledge and happiness prepared for the upright of every sex; when virtue alone will be the test of rank and the grand economy for an eternal duration will be properly adjusted."

"Which stately paragraph Alice Brown Mrs. Warren's biographer, who publishes the above letter, interprets charmingly."

"There speaks the feminine wisdom of the ages: 'My dear, it may be necessary for you to seem inferior; but you need not be so. Let them have their little game, since, it may have been so willed, it won't hurt you; it will amuse them.'"

Real Inconsiderate.

It is inconsiderate of public men to change their established fashion of wearing or not wearing whiskers. Now it is the former vice-president, Mr. Fairbanks, who has shaved off his beard, making an out of him necessary for all up-to-date newspapers--Concord Monitor.

OVERCOATS

Our Overcoat Stock is the pride of our store, and every Man's Overcoat is here! We mean by that, that no matter what a Man's Overcoat liking may be, there's a Coat hear that will fit his mind to a "T." Does he prefer a conservative style--a Chesterfield for instance? We've scores of Blacks and Oxfords for him. Some are luxurious propositions. Does he lean toward something more striking? We have any number of them, showing every new model and fabric. Long Coats, medium length and short--loose Coats and closer fitting. The new high collar, Military cut, etc. In rough Scotchly stuffs--in soft buried stripes--in rich warm colors. $7.50, 10.00, 12.00, 15.00 up to 30. The Man, that passes this store on Overcoats, will miss the best Overcoats in town.
